TO OPPOSE GERMANY.

United States Says Plainly She Can Not Have Margarita.

THE OBJECT IN VIEW

Naval Officers Say the Establishment of a Naval Station by Germany

There Would Be to Menace the United States.

New York, Oct. 29.—Any effort on the part of Germany to establish a coaling station in the territory of Venezuela will be opposed by the United States. Such action would be in violation of the principles of the Monroe doctrine. A cable dispatch from Port au Spain has been received confirming a rumor that the Venezuelan government is considering the advisability of leasing to Germany a port on the island of Margarita and it has attracted much attention. Germany is anxious to acquire sites for coaling stations in the western hemisphere. It has been frequently reported that she was endeavoring to establish a coaling station on the Brazilian coast, but no negotiations have been entered into.

Naval officers say that Germany could have only one object in establishing a naval station in the western hemisphere—to prepare for hostilities against the United States. The United States is the only power the Berlin government fears. When this country would not permit the acquisition of the Danish West Indies by any European state, reports were circulated that Germany was endeavoring to establish a coaling station at Santa Catharina Brazil. These reports were not confirmed.

Mr. Pulido, the Venezuelan charge d'affaires, says that he had heard nothing confirmatory to the report that his government is considering the advisability of leasing to Germany a port in the island of Margarita for use as a coaling station.

German claims on Venezuela arise from the construction of the trans-Andean railroad from Caracas to Valencia. Because of this Germany last year had a sharp correspondence with Venezuela and notice was given that the claims must be paid by Jan. 1, 1900. Margarita would be valuable to Germany as a base because of the strategic position in the Caribbean. It is near the mouth of the Orinoco river and could be used in operations centering about a Nicaraguan or Panama canal. The island has several deep harbors that could be strongly fortified and easily held.

MOTHER'S AWFUL DEED.

Kills Her Sixteen Year Old Boy and Sets Fire to the House.

Chattanooga, Oct. 29.—Firemen when called to the residence of Mrs. Effie Cawthon, a widow, early this morning broke open a locked door of a bedroom and discovered the dead body of Clifford, her 16-year-old son, lying in a pool of blood, his head literally hacked to pieces with a hatchet, which was lying nearby. It was evident at once that murder had been committed and the building set on fire for the purpose of concealing the crime.

Mrs. Cawthon, the mother, was arrested and confessed that she committed the deed, and that it was her intention to kill the whole family. She said the reason she killed her boy was that he was bad and smoked cigarettes.

ATTEMPT ESCAPE.

One Officer Killed, Another Fatally Injured and One Negro Dead.

New York, Oct. 29.—Two negro prisoners, in an attempt to escape from prison, attached to the Seventh district court in West Fifty-fourth street this morning killed Keeper Hugh McGovern, 51 years old, and probably fatally injured George Wilson, 59 years old, a "trusty," who had evidently tried to aid McGovern. One of the prisoners Arthur Flanagan, escaped, the other, Frank Emerson, fell into the yard adjoining the prison and was instantly killed. Both were charged with burglary.

British Troops Well Received.

London, Oct. 29.—The city imperial volunteers who arrived at Southampton from South Africa on Saturday, reached here by train early this morning and marched through London. The streets were packed by thousands and the soldiers received a tumultuous greeting. Such a demonstration never before was evoked for such a small body of volunteers.

Fight With Carlists.

Madrid, Oct. 29.—A conflict between 24 armed Carlists and a detachment of gendarmes occurred Sunday near Padiola, and the chief of the Carlist was killed and another man wounded. The band retreated in the direction of Moncada, pursued by cavalry and infantry.

Challenged for a Duel.

New York, Oct. 29.—Senor Don Manuel Silvela has challenged Senator Count de Lasalmenes to a duel, says the Madrid dispatch to The Journal. The challenge was issued as soon as Senor Silvela had resigned as premier. There is a long standing grudge between the men.

Thanksgiving Proclamation.

Washington, Oct. 29.—The president has issued a proclamation setting apart Thursday, Nov. 29, as Thanksgiving Day.

Poisoned by Chloral.

Police Trying to Find Where the Men Purchased the Drug.

New York, Oct. 29.—The only link that seems to be lacking in the chain of evidence against the alleged murderers of Jennie Bosschiefer, the working girl, is the identification of the purchaser of the drug. There is no question that she died from the effects of chloral poisoning, but it is not known where the drug was brought or by whom it was obtained. The police say they know W. C. McAllister tried to get a bottle refilled at Kent's drug store on the evening of the tragedy and they say that they have the affidavit of one of the clerks there that he refused to sell chloral to McAllister on that night.

The police have been canvassing the list of McAllister's friends in drug stores. There is no law in New Jersey against the sale of chloral.

Grain Rate Increased.

New York, Oct. 29.—Members of the produce exchange grain trade are much disturbed by the announcement that the railroad grain pool between Buffalo and this city have decided to advance the rate 1 cent per bushel, thereby increasing the rate of wheat to 4 cents per bushel basis during November, and that furthermore the roads in the pool would absolutely refuse to contract to transport any additional grain during the month of October.

More Smallpox Near Rice.

Corsicana, Tex., Oct. 29.—County Health Officer Dr. William Pannill reports another case of smallpox near Rice, the patient being a negro who came from south Texas with a lot of cotton pickers. The case has been isolated as far as possible.

Congressman Southard Assaulted.

Toledo, Oct. 29.—James Southard, congressman from this district and candidate for reelection, was assaulted by toughs at a meeting he was addressing Saturday and severely handled. There were 20 desperate fights in progress at one time and the police were called out.

Dr. Simms Resigned.

At the morning service at the Baptist church Sunday, Dr. A. M. Simms tendered his resignation as pastor, and a committee was appointed to act upon the matter. Dr. Simms has accepted a call to the care of the church at Hawkinsville, Ga., and his resignation takes effect December 1. Not only the members of his church, but all the people of Bryan will regret the departure of Dr. Simms and his family, who have won a high place in the regard of all. Dr. Simms several times refused the call of the Hawkinsville church and it was as often renewed until at length he felt it his duty to respond with his services. Having been in Bryan less than a year he has left the impress of his earnest work upon the community. He is an able man in the pulpit, combining the gifts of a logical mind and pleasing delivery. In discharging the various offices of pastor in the community he is possessed of much tact and kindly dignity which widen the sphere of his influence and usefulness.

Filipino Cigars.

The Eagle force is enjoying the novelty of smoking some excellent Filipino cigars sent by our good friend, Bob Deason, now soldiering with the famous Thirty-third regiment in the Philippines. The cigars are short and thick, rolled to pointed ends, of excellent flavor and strong enough to satisfy the most thoroughly nicotine saturated slave of the seductive weed. The box is embellished with a scene in the Luzon tobacco fields where the natives are at work. The picture also shows palm trees, native houses, etc. Mr. Deason has our heartfelt thanks for the treat, and the Eagle wishes for him a safe and speedy return to old Brazos.

Derden-Kearney.

Mr. Will Derden and Miss Nellie Kearney will be married in Houston this morning at 8:30 o'clock and will arrive in Bryan by the noon train for a brief visit to relatives here, after which they will go to Hearne, their future home. Mr. Derden was raised in Bryan and a large circle of friends will unite in wishing for him and his fair young bride long life and abundant happiness.

While living in Galveston Mr. Derden met Miss Kearney and they became engaged prior to the great storm. Since that time Miss Kearney has resided at Houston and Mr. Derden at Hearne. The Eagle extends congratulations.

"Zaza" To-Night.

An advance notice says: Chas. Frohman's company will present David Belasco's greatest dramatic success, "Zaza," at the Grand opera house Tuesday night, Oct. 30. When New York has placed the stamp of approval upon a play it does not always mean that it will be successful elsewhere, the exception which proves the rule, however, is without a doubt "Zaza," and the hearty welcome that has been accorded this wonderful play shows that its success is a solid one. Throughout the entire five acts this wonderful play thrills and entrances the audience; throughout its scenes of mirth and thrilling emotion there runs a story of self-sacrifice and honor, when honor could scarcely be looked for. Mr. Frohman has carefully selected the company, together with special scenery and appointments. Its remarkable run in New York for 250 nights and everyone with audiences that taxed the theatres is a feat that would be hard to duplicate. Since it has been out of that city, it has done a tremendous business, everywhere the same story is told, "every seat sold," before the company arrives.

Frederick Warde.

A large and appreciative audience greeted Mr. Frederick Warde at the Grand opera house last night to witness his production of that pleasing romantic comedy, "The Duke's Jester." The play tells an extremely romantic story, having much of originality in design and incident, brisk action, profound pathos and pronounced continuity of interest, and is all pleasantly spiced with dashes of humor and frequent salutes of rather keen-edged wit. The play was written for Frederick Warde, who plays the title role, and it may be said that the dramatist has been singularly happy in furnishing an accurate "fit" in every particular. Mr. Warde has excellent support from Mr. and Mrs. Spencer, Miss May Warde, Mr. Fred Hight, H. C. Barton and other members of the company.

The attendance was very large; indeed the house was packed, and curtain calls followed nearly every act. Supt. J. W. Byars of the C. W. & B. V., headed an excursion from Calvert and Hearne to see the performance.

TERRIFIC EXPLOSION AT NEW YORK CITY.

A Drug House and an Adjoining Building Wrecked—One Hundred People Buried in Ruins.

New York, Oct. 29.—Tarrant & Co's wholesale drug house was wrecked by explosions at 12:12 this afternoon and most of the persons in that building and the one adjoining were either killed or maimed. There is no telling at this time the number of victims.

It is said that 100 of the employees in the building were girls. They were on different floors when the fire broke out and the explosions occurred. It is hard to see how these girls could have escaped.

In a restaurant next door to the drug store there were about 200 people eating their luncheon. Of these many were injured and a score or more of them lost their lives. Up to 2:45 p. m., eleven of the injured persons had been taken to the New York hospital.

The first explosion occurred at 12:12 p. m. and took the roof off the building. The explosions sent debris flying through the air and into the street where dozens of persons were injured.

A lithographing establishment close to Tarrant's place, caught fire and the flames spread to the Irving bank and to two buildings across the street.

The Warren Street station of Ninth Avenue elevated road, directly in front of the drug house was completely demolished and a number of persons who were standing upon it waiting for the train were blown to the street and received serious injuries. Several women escaped from the station, however, by walking along the platform at the edge of the track.

A number of buildings at the rear of the drug store were blown down.

Flames spread very rapidly until the two blocks from Chambers to Warren and from Washington to Greenwich streets were soon on fire.

John M. Elliott of Brooklyn was sitting on the roof of a 7-story building a block and a half from the explosion. He says the force of the first explosion was directly upwards for 30 feet when a column of debris spread and fell downward. It took the roof off the building and he could hear the cries and screams of the injured people.

Three minutes later, the third explosion, which was the worst of all, came. It shook the buildings where he was and debris fell about him.

Policeman Devine was in the immediate vicinity when the explosion occurred. He said that a number of firemen were blown to their death on Warren street side of the building. He said he rescued one of them, but no one living could have rescued the others.

BANK CLERKS' RECORD.

Several Have Been Disclosed at New York Since the Alvord Affair.

New York, Oct. 29.—Since the report of the embezzlement of the note teller, Cornelius L. Alvord of the First National bank, there have been many stories of new and rigid espionage by banking houses over their clerks. One of these stories concerns the German Savings bank.

It is reported that five clerks of that institution have been discharged because detectives discovered that they were associates of gamblers. Three of them are said to have an interest in a book-making firm that does business at the local race tracks.

The story recites that detectives were started on the trail of all the clerks in the bank in question and that the five were the only ones about whom anything suspicious could be learned. It was not said that the clerks had stolen anything nor that they had contemplated any wrong doing, but the story is to the effect that the officers of the bank deemed it best to get rid of them.

Alvord Under Arrest.

Boston, Oct. 29.—Cornelius Alvord, charged with embezzling $600,000 from the First National bank at New York City, is under arrest at this place.

Rich Woman Killed by Cars.

Yankton, S. D., Oct. 29.—The wife of Iver Bagstad, the richest man and leading citizen of Gayville, while temporarily insane through illness, escaped from home and was found by searching parties along the railroad track where three heavy freight trains had passed over her and pieces of her body were scattered over 100 yards of track.

Man Cut to Pieces.
Tyler, Tex., Oct. 29.—News has reached Tyler of the killing of a young man named Cawthorn, near Lindale on Saturday night. A debate was being held at a schoolhouse and some parties were disturbing the meeting when Cawthorn went outside and asked them to stop. A row followed, in which Cawthorn was cut to death with pocket knives. Four well known young men of prominent families were arrested and are being held by the officers. There is considerable excitement in the Lindale community. Deceased was well connected in this county.

Had it been a week day over 40 men would have been at work on the structure by 8 in the morning.

Killed the City Marshal.
Falls City, Neb., Oct. 29.—City Marshal Wake of the town of Rulo, was shot and killed by "Bill" Hunt Sunday night. Hunt was disturbing speakers at a political meeting and the city marshal attempted to arrest him, when Hunt shot him twice, killing him instantly. An effort was made to form a mob to lynch him, but he was hurried away to the county jail at this place.

Held Up in a Pasture.
Guthrie, O. T., Oct. 29.—A most daring daylight robbery is reported from Columbia. A son of W. M. Molden had gone to the pasture to get his horses, and while there two men came from the brush nearby, and at the point of a gun held up and robbed him of $24. Young Molden could give but a slight description of the highwaymen.

Acetylene Gas Explosion.
Chicago, Oct. 29.—An explosion of acetylene gas that was to be used for a stereopticon entertainment wrecked the interior of the First Presbyterian church in Austin Sunday night and the operator, George W. Leitch, a missionary, lost his right arm and is otherwise injured.

THIS IS TO REMIND YOU

That all groceries are not alike. Some are made from cheap materials by poor machinery, and very little care is given to the work. That's the dangerous kind because it's likely adulterated. That's the kind you would do well to let alone. Others are made from the choicest materials, much care is given to the work, skilled labor is employed, and much money is spent in making them right—that's the kind that gives health, brain and brawn; you will find that kind in the list below:

ALL NOT COMPLIED.

Some Coal Operators Have Not Yet Posted the Advance.

SOME WILL RESUME.

President Mitchell Has Ordered Miners to Return to Work at All the Mines Where the Ten Per Cent Is Guaranteed.

Hazleton, Pa., Oct. 29.—The Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal company, operating the Audenreid, Honey Brook and Green Mountain collieries in this district, has not yet complied with the demands of the anthracite miners. It is said that the company will grant the concessions by Nov. 1, when work will be resumed.

All the coal companies in the Wyoming valley, with a few exceptions, have now posted notices granting their employees the 10 per cent increase. The exceptions are a few individual operators who do not employ many hands. But it is said that when those employed at these collieries report for work they will be told that they will receive the same wages paid by the other companies.

The Kinston Coal company has posted notices granting the increase. This company employs 2200 men and was the last of the big individual concerns in the valley to grant the increase.

The officials of the Susquehanna company had a conference with their employees Saturday night and agreed to pay them the advance.

There will be no resumption of work at the Milnesville colliery, which is operated by the A. S. Van Wyck estate. Owing to an agreement with the Pennsylvania railroad, the officials say they cannot afford to grant an increase of 10 per cent, and if the men return to work they will have to be contented with the old rate of wages.

The Van Wyck company has granted the increase of its other collieries at Coleraine and Beaver Meadow.

It is said that Calvin Pardee, owner of the Lattimer mines, will not take back those men who struck before the mines were closed down by 800 marchers some weeks ago.

The firemen and brakemen on the Delaware, Susquehanna and Schuylkill railroad have submitted a number of demands to the railroad officials. The former demand that 30 hours constitute three shifts, and that they be paid $7 for the same instead of $5.10, which they receive at present. The brakemen demand an increase of 10 per cent in their wages. The engineers have no grievances. This railroad is owned by Coxe Bros. & Co., which operates six collieries in this region, and was built for the purpose of hauling coal from its mines to the tracks of the Lehigh Valley railway.

President Mitchell and the executive board of the United Mine Workers visited Kingston Sunday afternoon. They were received by a large crowd and there was great enthusiasm. Addresses were made by President Mitchell and others. Mr. Mitchell told all the miners to return to work. He also congratulated them on their good behavior during the strike.

MINERS AT WORK.

Only Few Owners Refuse the Increase and Their Mines Are Idle.

Hazleton, Pa., Oct. 29.—Operations were resumed this morning at a majority of the collieries in the Hazleton district. The strike is still on at the mines of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal company located at Audenreid, Honey Brook and Green Mountain. One of the officials of the company said this company had informed the men it would abolish the sliding scale and pay 10 per cent increase until April 1, and they do not know why they refused to report for work. The mine workers claim that they want a written guarantee in this respect.

The Oneida and Derringer collieries of Coxe Bros. & Co are also idle, because of some misunderstanding on account of the notices posted by the company. All hands probably will be at work in a day or so.

The only other colliery that did not resume is the one at Millsville, where no demands have been granted at all. Before the strike began this company threatened to abandon this mine, and it seems the threat will be carried out.

About 100 strikers found themselves out of work at the Lattimer colliery of C. Pardee & Co. Twenty-five of these men, the firm claim, got their settlement in full when they quit work and were no longer considered employees, so their places were filled by others.

STILL OVATING BRYAN.

He Is Warmly Greeted at New York and Crowds See Him Leave.

New York, Oct. 29.—Mr. and Mrs. Bryan attended services at the Madison Avenue Presbyterian church Sunday. When Mr. Bryan first appeared on the street on his way to church there were very few people about, but those who were there instantly recognized him and with many a shout, followed him to the door of the church. Yale and Harvard boys who came to New York with Mr. Bryan on Saturday were also at church occupied seats a short distance in front of Mr. Bryan.

Dr. Parkhurst, the pastor, was not informed of Mr. Bryan's presence and his sermon was an exposition of a portion of the scriptures. Word was evidently passed through the congregation during the service that Mr. Bryan was in the church, for when the benediction was pronounced almost the entire congregation made a dash for the doors and filled the sidewalk and street in front of the church. This crowd was also augmented by those who were on the street and in the square and by the time the party reached the hotel 2000 people were crowded about them. So dense was the crowd, in fact, that it became necessary for several policemen to go in advance of Mr. Bryan and clear a way for him through the great crowd. As he disappeared in the entrance of the hotel the crowd cheered.

From the time Mr. Bryan finished dinner until 9 o'clock at night when he left the Hoffman house there was a steady stream of callers. Mr. and Mrs. Bryan were both kept busy shaking hands.

When he left the hotel police had to open a way for him to reach his train for Albany.

The demonstration in behalf of Mr. Bryan at Madison Square Garden on Saturday night was the greatest ever held by that party in this state. It equalled that of any political party.

Thirty Speeches Scheduled.

Bainbridge, N. Y., Oct. 29.—W. J. Bryan began the first day of the last week of his campaign with a brief speech at this place. Notwithstanding the early hour there was a throng of people at the railroad station and Bryan was compelled to respond to their calls. He had not yet arisen, but he dressed promptly and went to the rear platform of the "Ramblor" where he was soon joined by Mrs. Bryan who will remain with him during all of this week. There were loud cheers both for Mr. Bryan and his wife and a general demand for a handshake, which was accorded to by both. The resident population were reinforced by people from other places.

Mr. Bryan started the day with a schedule of 30 speeches before him. He announced at the breakfast table that he was never in a better condition for the campaign, and said he wanted to make all the speeches so as to break his own record, the highest number which he had hitherto made in one day being 27.

This point developed a new orator in the person of James C. Dahlman, the Nebraska national committeeman. While the crowd was waiting at the depot for Mr. Bryan and clamoring for his appearance, Mr. Dahlman stepped out on the rear platform to explain the situation. He made a speech telling the people he had been with Bryan from the beginning of the campaign and he was sure there would be a landslide in his favor. In Canton, the president's own home, where Bryan only received 37 votes in 1895, there was now a Democratic club of between 400 and 500 members and he said Canton was only a sample of what was going on.

Mr. Bryan was greeted by a fine crowd when he spoke at Belie Bridge and directed his remarks to farmers.

ONLY THREE SPEECHES.

Roosevelt Has the Lightest Day Since He Began Making Addresses.

Binghamton, N. Y., Oct. 29.—Gov. Roosevelt started on his last week of campaigning on a special train, leaving this place at 10 o'clock. The governor is in excellent health, having enjoyed a quiet rest Sunday and relief from speaking. His throat is in good condition, considering he has made 600 speeches since he started through the country. He has not lost flesh with his travel of 19,200 miles, but in fact has gained.

The trip for the day was arranged to include a fewer number of speeches than any day of the state tour, only three stops being scheduled at Cortland, Ithaca and Elmira.

When Governor Roosevelt finishes his trip Saturday next he will have made 650 speeches and traveled over 20,000 miles, a record equal to the combined record of all the other candidates for national office in the past 50 years, exclusive of Mr. Bryan.

George Dunlap Dead.

Chicago, Oct. 29.—George Dunlap, who was at one time one of the most prominent theatrical men in the United States, is dead at the Alexian Brothers Hospital. Mr. Dunlap was the manager of the McCaull opera company when DeWolff Hopper, Didgby Bell and Marie Contrelli were among its members. Before entering the theatrical business he made a fortune as a druggist in New York. The remains will be sent to Danville, Ky., for burial.

Drug Firm Burned Out.

Houston, Oct. 29.—Fire here Saturday night almost completely destroyed the stock of the Houston Drug Company. Loss about $140,000; insurance $100,000.
